Dear Parents,

What a fantastic response to the 'own clothes day' for the Haitian Earthquake Fund. We raised £1,381.54 which will be sent out immediately to CAFOD for their use. Once again the generosity of spirit shown by all in our school is manifest and visible. Thank you all for your contributions.

South Africa

I was in Durban for the last two weeks helping a colleague who has set up a literacy programme in a school there. South Africa has made great strides since the ending of apartheid, but there is still a long way to go. I visited a secondary school and four primary schools, mainly in the Kwzula region, it was a very busy two weeks but productive. The majority of the children speaks in isZulu and need access to reading books in English. My aim is to set up a project to send books to these schools over the next two years. I am calling the project, Books 2012 – to gather together 2012 books to mark Olympics year and leave a legacy in South Africa.

Lent Liturgy

Father John will be conducting our Lent Liturgy on Tuesday 23rd February at 11.00am. You will all be most welcome to attend.

Consultation Slips

They have been issued today. Please return by Monday 8th February 2010.

Illness

If your child has been vomiting or had diarrhoea, please keep them at home for 24 hours. If they are sent into school they may spread the bug they have to other children.

Comments

It would be appreciated by staff that if any parent has a comment to make about a particular member of staff that it is addressed to them personally to clear up any misunderstandings.

Yours Sincerely,

M.J. Lyons
Headteacher
