The Choice Advice Service
Help for parents of year 6 pupils going through secondary transfer

Choosing which secondary school you would prefer your child to attend is a very important decision, and can be confusing.

If your child is in year 6 you will have received information from Barnet Council's admission team about transferring to secondary school. There is a lot to think about, decisions to make and forms to fill in.

The choice advisor can help you understand the system. They can offer you free and impartial advice and support, but cannot guarantee you a place at your preferred school.

Choosing a school

- Read the secondary education booklet published by your home local authority

- the 2018 booklet will be available in September 2017
- download Barnet's booklet at www.barnet.gov.uk/schooladmissions

Choosing a school

■ Talk to the Customer Service Team

the team can offer you advice and answer your questions

how do I contact them?

■ email: school.admissions@barnet.gov.uk

■ if you live outside Barnet, you will find the contact details for your admissions team in Barnet's secondary education booklet

Choosing a school

- Look at exam results and Ofsted reports
 - the latest Ofsted reports are available from the Ofsted website www.ofsted.gov.uk
 - achievement and attainment tables are available at www.gov.uk/school-performance-tables

Choosing a school

- Look carefully at the admission criteria for each school
 - selection by aptitude
 - faith criteria
 - siblings
 - distance

How do I apply?

■ How soon can I apply?

- the application process begins on 1 September 2017

■ Where do I apply?

- apply online at www.eadmissions.org.uk

How do I apply?

■ How many schools can I apply for?

- you can apply for up to Six schools
- you will rank the schools in your order of preference
- it is important to think carefully about the order as you will not be able to change it after the closing date

■ Can I apply to schools outside Barnet?

- yes, you must include all your chosen schools, whether inside or outside the borough where you live

How do I apply?

■ Realistic Preferences

- if you just apply for one school, it will not increase your chances of getting a place at the school and your child will be considered for that one school only
- if this is unsuccessful, you may miss out on an offer which could have been made at another school and you are likely to be offered a place at the nearest school with a vacancy
- It is important to make realistic school choices to increase your chances of securing a offer and avoid disappointment

How do I apply?

■ Do I need to fill in any other forms?

- all voluntary aided schools and some foundation schools, free schools & academies will ask you to complete a Supplementary Information Form (SIF)
- the SIF will ask for additional information, for example
 - faith schools will ask about church attendance and require a priest's reference
 - selective schools will ask about any medical condition that needs to be taken into account at the test and they may also require a photograph
- Jewish schools will also ask you to complete a a Certificate of Religious Practice (CRP), which must be signed by a Rabbi
- SIFs and CRPs must be returned to the individual schools

How do I apply?

■ What else do I need to provide?

□ Proof of address

- your child's permanent address must be used on the application form
- if you have moved within the last two years you will be asked to provide proof of the new address and proof that you have disposed of the previous property

Selection Tests

- Schools must give parents the test results before they apply for a school place
 - applications to sit the tests should be made directly to the individual school

Selection Tests

■ When will the tests be held?

- most schools will hold tests early in the autumn term
- some schools will hold the tests in the summer term while your child is still in Year 5

How do I apply?

■ When is the closing date?

- 31 October 2017
- the online system will close at 12 midnight on 31 October

Late applications

- What happens if I miss the deadline?
 - late applications will not be considered until after the first round of offers
 - if there is a good reason for a late application, it may be treated as on-time
 - you must let the Admissions Team know your reason by Friday 8 December 2017

What happens next?

■ Co-ordinated admissions

- all 33 London boroughs and surrounding county councils are included in the co-ordinated admissions process
- application lists are exchanged
- offer lists are drawn up
- offer lists are exchanged

What happens next?

■ How will places be allocated?

- if the school receives more applications than places available, the published admissions criteria will be applied to decide who can be offered a place
- each school listed on the application form is considered against the admissions criteria regardless of the preference order
- your ranking order is not passed to the individual schools

Offers

- Will I be offered more than one school place?
 - if your child can be offered more than one school, you will be offered the school which you ranked higher
 - the lower preference schools will be withdrawn and offered to other children
 - no child will be offered more than one school place

■ When will I hear?

- National Offer Day is Thursday 1 March 2018
- results will be available in the evening of 1 March
- offer letters will NOT be sent; you must login to your online account to view the outcome of your application

■ Accepting offers

- places to be accepted or declined online by 15 March 2018

No Offer?

- What happens if I don't get any of my preference schools?
 - your child will be allocated a place at the nearest school with a vacancy
 - remain on the waiting lists
 - appeal for a place
 - join waiting lists for other schools

Appeals

- Every parent has the right of appeal
- appeals are heard by an independent panel
- you will have the opportunity to present your case in person
- you will need to convince the panel that your child's needs are more important than the school's need to limit the admission number
- appeals are unlikely to be successful unless there are exceptional grounds
