SUMMER TERM 2016 – Friday 13th May 2016

Dear Parents/Carers,

A very big well done to the Year 6 children who displayed a very mature and sensible attitude to their SATs this week. They clearly did their best which is all we can ask for.

Year 4 impressed us also this week with their "Britain's Got Talent" assembly based on the feast of Pentecost. They were confident in their message and led us brilliantly in our act of worship!

The children who made their Holy Communion in St Albans last Sunday had a beautiful sunny day to receive this very special sacrament. They were very prayerful and respectful and looked amazing in their outfits.

A special mention to James, Poppy, Sarah-Kate, Emilia and Flavia who raised £150 in a cake sale recently. The children donated half to the North London Hospice and the other half to equipment for the playground baskets for each class. The cake sale was incredibly organised and they kept the school informed every step of the way. This class really do have amazing entrepreneurial skills!

Have a wonderful weekend!

God Bless!

Miss Kelly ☺
