SUMMER TERM 2016 – Friday 1st July 2016

Dear Parents/Carers,

Thank you to very one who came to the Summer Extravaganza. It was an amazing event. Thank you to everyone who made it a brilliant success despite us having 4 seasons in 3 hours. We never gave up and the crowds kept on coming!!

We raised an amazing £4051! This includes the matched funding from Barclays that was kindly arranged by Aidan and James' dad. A big thank you to the Friends who organised our first combined Summer Fair & BBQ. On behalf of all the children and staff at St Theresa's we would especially like to thank Mrs Brennan the Chair of the Friends. She will be stepping down as Chair after many years on the Friends committee. She has been an amazing leader and has ensured that the children remain at the heart of all the work the PTA does for the school.

St Theresa's Year 6 boys participated in Finchley Catholic High's Football tournament last Sunday. Mr Troy our football manager was there to lead 10 of our boys who played brilliantly and came 3rd out of 18 schools that participated in the tournament. Jaeden in Yr 6 was awarded the 'Man of the Tournament' out of everyone there. Thanks to Mr Troy for giving up his Sunday to ensure our children were able to participate in this annual event. A successful weekend all round.

Have a lovely weekend! God Bless!

Miss Kelly ☺
